

What do You Base Your Beliefs Upon?

Tradition, Theory, Imagination, Pick 'n' Mix, myth

Beliefs affect Attitudes
Attitudes affect lifestyle
Lifestyle affects destiny

Evidence of History

Evidence of Archaeology

Evidence of Prophecy

Evidence of Consistency

Evidence of Experience

Evidence of Time

Evidence of Jesus Christ

3 Tim 3:16

2 Pet 1:21

- talk on the authority of Scripture (everything we believe is in this book). As always keep applying the gospel throughout.

- some things that people seem to base their ideas on. Is that wise? Tradition could include Muslims, nominal Christians etc

- apply (the connections are very telling and can be seen clearly in today's society).

- as Christians we base our beliefs, lifestyle & destiny on the Bible

- history confirms the Bible. It is the only religious book with a lot of history in it which can be researched (and found to be accurate).

- British museum, London supports this.

- detailed predictions that have come 100% true. Apply.

- a harmonious book despite writers coming from different places, different continents, different languages, different time periods.

- millions of people from different backgrounds & cultures have been transformed by the teaching of this book.

- this book is still as relevant in any time period & any culture (unlike other religious books).

- "the greatest movement leader" of all time demonstrated complete confidence in this book.

- apply

What

do

you

base

your beliefs

upon

Tradition ?

Theory ?

Imagination?

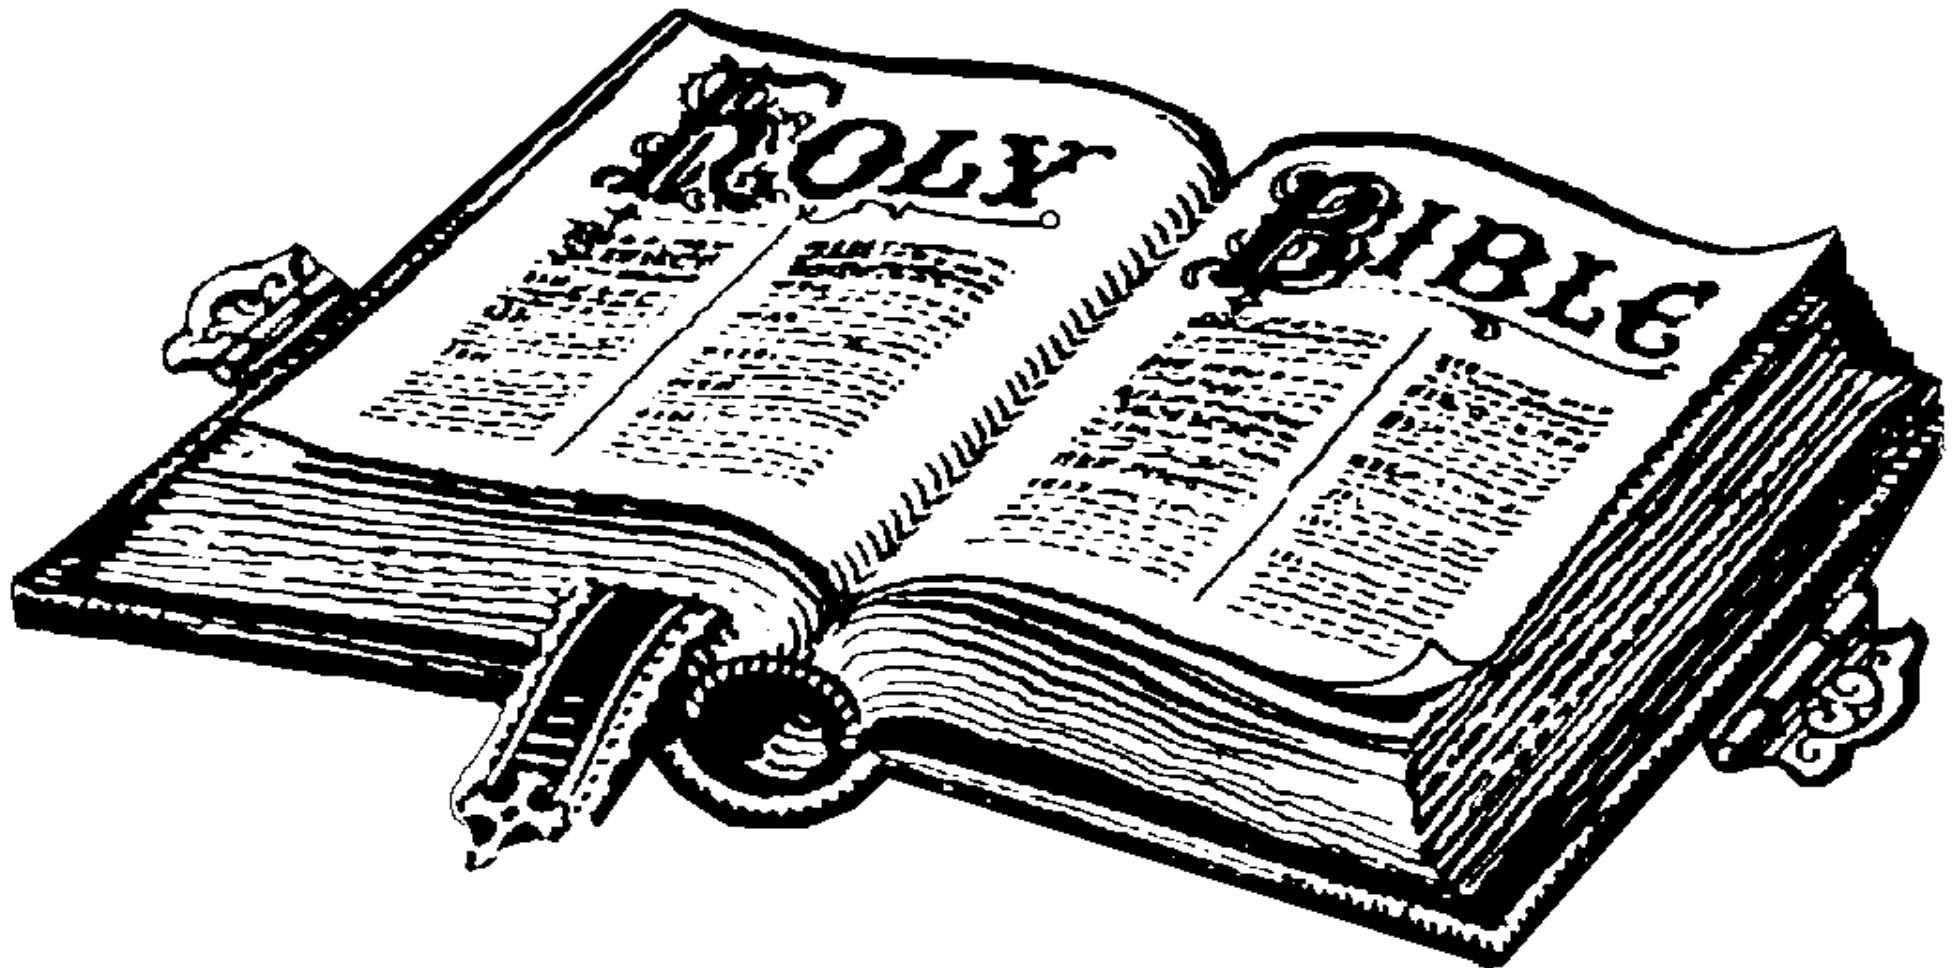

Myth ?

Pick 'n' Mix ?

beliefs affect attitudes!

attitudes affect lifestyle!

lifestyle affects destiny!

Evidence of history

Evidence of archaeology

Evidence of prophecy

Evidence of consistency

Evidence of experience

Evidence of time

Evidence of Jesus Christ

All scripture is God breathed

2 Timothy 3:16

holy men of God spoke as moved by God

2 Peter 1:21